

Message from Holistic Insurance

I have heard varying things as to who can return on 4th July, as before the best place to check is public health or the local authority for the practitioner in question.

Some acupuncturists who are working from clinics are returning under the guidance of other health services but it is best for individuals to check their area as the information is not always consistent.

Please check with your Local Authority (Council) before returning to work.